

CURRICULUM VITAE

Michael A. Feiertag, M.D.

Kennedy-White Orthopaedic Center
6050 Cattleridge Blvd, Suite 201 • Sarasota, Florida 34232 • (941) 365-0655

Birth Date

May 26, 1961

Employment History

1996-Present	Kennedy-White Orthopaedic Center 6050 Cattleridge Blvd, Suite 201, Sarasota, Florida 34232
1994-1996	Vero Orthopedics 1260 37th Street, Vero Beach, Florida 32960

Board Certified

American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, July 11, 1996
Fellow, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, March 19, 1998

Post-graduate Medical Training

Spine Fellowship, Emory University, 1994
Orthopaedic Surgery, University of Miami/Jackson Memorial Medical Center, 1993
General Surgery, New York University Medical Center, 1988

Education

University of Miami School of Medicine, M.D., 1987
Cornell University, B.A., 1983

Honors

Special Expert Witness, State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration, 1999 through 2002.

State Medical License

Florida #64759
Georgia #36735

Publications

State of fixation of anterior vertebral body screws. William C. Horton, Stephen F. Blackstock, John T. Norman, Carey S. Hill, Michael A. Feiertag, William C. Hutton. Spine, 21: 439-44, 1996.

A rabbit model for non-union of lumbar intertransverse process spine arthrodeses. Michael A. Feiertag, Scott D. Boden, Jeffrey H. Schimandle, John T. Norman. Spine, 21: 27-31, 1996.

The effect of different surgical releases on thoracic spinal motion: A cadaveric study. Michael A. Feiertag, William C. Horton, John T. Norman, Folsom C. Proctor, William C. Hutton. Spine, 20: 1604-11, 1995.